I saw something online that makes me feel unhappy.

When I play games on my tablet I can get cross.

I have to switch off my game but I haven't got all the gems yet.

I made a mistake online but I can't tell my mum. She will be so upset.

My friend showed me a picture on their computer. It scared me. Now the picture is stuck in my head.

My friends take photos of everything. I don't like being in them.

Mum has a game on her phone that I want to play. I know the password.

I clicked on something on a web page and it says I can win a prize.
